

We wish you a pleasant trip! Don't forget to wear your face mask on the train, at the station, on the plane and at the airport. Thank you very much!

You can get anywhere in comfort by public transport or by taxi. Masks are obligatory here, too, as soon as you reach the platform or stop. Please pay for your travel contactlessly, if possible.

We hope you have a relaxed stay in Munich

The hotels in Munich would like to warmly welcome you! A mask is essential here at check-in, check-out and in indoor areas. Contactless payment methods are safer than cash here.

Enjoy the full range of Munich's gastronomy. Please enter the establishment with a mask. You are most welcome to take it off when at the table. Cashless payment also helps to make things safer here.

You are totally free to visit Munich's museums, galleries and sights. Please wear your face mask in all indoor areas.

When you are in the open air, on a bike tour in the English Garden, on the banks of the Isar, or strolling through the pedestrian zone, you can decide for yourself whether you want to wear a mask or not.

Tickets for the theatre, cinema and events can only be reserved in advance and mostly online. At many venues it is obligatory to wear masks once you leave your own seat.
